

Thomas Griffin

Custom Learning Academy's Education Attorney and Board Member

Thomas Griffin has been working with the school since it was founded in 2005. Tom is a graduate of the University of California; Berkeley with a Ph.D. in Education Administration and Reform. He has been a school law professor throughout California at schools such as University of California; Berkeley, California State University, Sacramento and University of LaVerne from 1992 to 1996. He served for 11 years as the California State Department of Education's chief counsel from 1972-1983. He is currently practices through his private practice: Thomas Griffin Law Offices, located in both, Sacramento and Tahoe City since 1983. Tom currently serves as legal counsel for several school districts in California, as well as sitting on several school boards in California. Tom's extensive expertise in education reform and education law has been paramount in shaping the growth and success of Custom Learning Academy.